IN MEMORIAM

AWAY

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead—he is just away!

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into a brighter land,

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.

And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,—

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here:

Think of him as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away!

IS IT THE FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT

C. G. LAPPIN
Oberlin College—B.A.
Ohio State University—M.A.

Shawnee is proud to have as its superintendent a man who is well known in educational circles. It has been through the influence of Mr. Lappin that Shawnee school is what it is today. His executive ability has been proven in the way he has met the many difficulties which have confronted him in the twenty seven years he has guided this school in its course. His likable personality has made him a popular figure, not only in the school itself but also in the communities it serves.

PRINCIPAL

O. C. KNECHT
Bowling Green State University—B.S.
Indiana University—M.S.
United States Government

Honest, sincere and dependable is our principal. Mr. Knecht is broadminded and understands the problems brought to him by both students and faculty. With friendliness and yet with firmness he meets the tasks which come to him in the capacity of principal, and through his efforts Shawnee High School is a well organized and smoothly functioning school.

SCHOOL NURSE

Mrs. Martha Gallup, Shawnee's registered nurse, is helping to maintain the highest health standards in the school.

SECRETARIES

Mrs. Mildred Roney, secretary to Mr. Lappin, skillfully looks after matters in the superintendent's office.

Mrs. Lois Landfair, secretary to Mr. Knecht, manages student affairs in the high school office.

Is this a rush order?

I'm sure the students are capable.

Gosh! Good thing she's here.

PERPLEXED??

I am just a seventh grader, much confused and much perplexed,

Seeking answers for my problems
and I really am quite vexed.

Maybe looking through this handbook and the "Quilna" I may see

The very best solutions to the things that bother me.

Coming to the close of their career at Shawnee, the class of 1953 can look back at a happy four years. The members of this class have had much to do with the success of the various activities of the school. Many of them have taken active part in the work of the staffs of the school publications, in sports, in music, and in clubs. As a class they have cooperated to make theirs one of the best.

Look at this one!!!

"I say ol' chap, can you see???"

Advisers

Mr. Crites Mr. Hughes

Enthusiasm!!! keynotes the Shawnee juniors, as is shown in their active participation in all phases of school activities, in the enviable scholastic records of many, and in their solid backing of class money-making projects. Presentation of the comedy, "A Little Honey," topped this field, but running not far behind were the sales of booster badges, Christmas cards, and pecans. All this was effected in hopes not only of staging a colorful prom, but also of having a large surplus for a school memorial.

To their enthusiasm the members of the Class of '54 add the ability for leadership, demonstrated as officers in all Shawnee organizations. They believe that 1952-53 has provided a strong basis for an even better, that all-important, senior year ahead.

Rings, here at last!

I didn't know that.

Advisers

Mrs. Guyton Mr. Starling

"Up-and-coming" they call these sophomores, who are leaving a lasting mark on all Shawnee activities. They are particularly prominent in athletics and exhibit outstanding class loyalty. In anticipation of their prom in 1954, the group began collecting sales tax stamps.

All in all, the Shawnee crystal ball seems to predict only the best for the Class of '55.

Winding up the business??

STAFF

Under the leadership of Editor Charles Baechler and Adviser Mrs. Waltz, the editorial staff of the Quilna worked hard and faithfully to try to make this year's annual better and more enjoyable to the students of Shawnee.

Doris Simpkins, Business Manager of the Quilna, and her staff, under the supervision of Miss Gorman, did splendid work in completing the financial business of the annual.

The paper goes to press!!

STAFF

"Be sure to get your copy in before the deadline! Who is going to get that ad? Hurry and get these stapled together! They go out today!" These remarks may be heard while the Chief is going to press. This official school newspaper is published monthly by an energetic staff. All those who help produce the paper are certain that there can hardly be anything more educational and at the same time more fun than putting the news before the people.

"To build a fellowship . . ." So begins the Y-Teen purpose, and this year's 94 members have striven to carry out that purpose to its fullest meaning.

The solemn consecration service on "wRECk night," followed by the hilarity of that Y-Teen "slumber" party, a rip-roaring basketball game with the Hi-Y, and a "Heart Hop," co-sponsored with that organization, were high pointers in the huge list of activities.

However, a fellowship is not merely social. The Y-Teens and Hi-Y presented an assembly featuring the movie, "One God," and inaugurated pre-Easter services, conducted by the students themselves. Armed with mops and pails, the girls spent one precious Saturday spring housecleaning for local invalids; and found, to their amazement, that housecleaning can be fun!

The annual mother-daughter tea, given by the Y-Teens, at which the 1953-54 officers were installed, concluded the events for the school calendar year.

A Christmas dance in December, a Heart Hop in February, a trip in May—all these were activities of the Shawnee Hi-Y this year. The club also had two enthusiastic basketball teams and various other parties and social events. Most prominent of the things done at these events were packing baskets for the needy at Christmas and Thanksgiving, and contributing to several other service projects.

Presentation of pins to new members took place in the spring.

Ohoooo! Candy

The things on the agenda for this school year consisted largely of parties and special meetings. Among these were a hayride in October and a square dance given for them by the F.F.A. in February. The highlight of the year's activities was a dinner given by the F.H.A. and the F.F.A. in honor of their parents.

Band in S Formation

Mr. Frederick Mills
Director

The Shawnee band has been kept busy this year with a variety of activities. The marching band performed at all the football games and marched for several parades in Lima. A spring concert, a performance for the P.T.A., and district competition at Ada kept the concert band busy. Groups of players organized in a dance band for dances after the games and for a pep band for the basketball games. Ensembles that played at various functions and entered in district competition were formed by some of the band members.

Touchdown!!!!

Proud dads . . .

Shawnee's fighting eleven got off to a good start this year by defeating Central, 6-0, in the olympic preview. They then proceeded to capture the next six consecutive games until they were stopped by Columbus Grove in an impressive grid-iron battle. The underdog Shawnee team then went on to win their last two games against powerful Wapakoneta and Forest. Reserves won all 7 games—good record.

The scrappy Indians' first year in the Western Buckeye league was impressive as they posted a league record of 5 wins and 2 losses, which was good for third place. Our braves finished the season with a record of 12 wins and 9 losses. Coach Paul Bricker's fighting five built around the returning lettermen from last year's squad proved to be a good ball club. Dick "Gus" Mauk, Coach Bricker's outstanding player, was selected on the Western Buckeye League All-Star Team as Forward. In the district tournament at Bluffton the fighting Indians defeated Wapakoneta before closing their season in a see-saw with Lima Central.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders—Shirley Rohr, head cheerleader; Lila Hefner, Dorothy Miller, Sue Allion.

The cheerleaders have had a very successful season during the year 1952-53 with a newly added cheerleading coach, Miss Alma Lou Shaw.

One of the highlights of this year was the organization of the "Pep Club," of which Miss Shaw is adviser.

Head Cheerleader, Shirley Rohr, has the distinction of having been cheerleader for five consecutive years.

Publishing a yearbook is not and can not be done by a staff alone. Consequently the Quilna Staff wishes to thank all those people who have so kindly extended their cooperation in the production of this 1953 annual. To our teachers who have been inconvenienced at times, to our leaders, our advisers, our activity groups, our friends, and the entire student body, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks. With your help and consideration we have attempted to give you a picture of the past year at Shawnee. We hope you like it.

O pardon me! We have almost forgotten someone. We do wish to thank Mr. Bookworm for spending many long hours digesting the material which we have placed before him, so that through his eyes, you may get a better understanding of school life at Shawnee.

Charles A. Baechler
Editor-in-Chief

What The Bookworm Saw In Shawnee

I've crawled through the "Quilna" from cover to cover
And I'm jammed full of facts that I did discover.

The students are active and full of pep,
While the faculty jumps to keep in step.

They excel in everything in Shawnee High
And their abilities reach clear up to the sky.

To strive for perfection in all they attempt,
And to reap the rewards from which others are exempt—

Is their one main ambition that never shall die
In this wonderful school of Shawnee High.

And now please excuse me, I'll take my repose,
For I'm bursting the buttons right off my clothes.

I've consumed so much that I'm full to the brim
Like an old pork barrel that is filled to the rim.

I must look appetizing to those birds in the tree,
So I'll hide from that robin, lest he go on a spree—

B-u-r-r-r-p.

YOUR WORK is well done

Commencement Day is a day for compliments, congratulations and good wishes for work well done, but it marks, also, the beginning of a more important work — that of adult life.

The Metropolitan Bank hopes for your success, and wants you to know that it will be glad indeed if its friendly and helpful service can contribute to your progress.

We are sure that once you know The Metropolitan, it will be your bank for a lifetime.

Let's get acquainted.
